

Getting Started

To Launch Presentation: Find the repDemocracy application on the supplied media (flash drive, CD, DD, etc.) Double-click application to begin.

 repDemocr acy.exe	PC: Double-click repDemocracy (or repDemocracy.exe)	 repDemocracy	MAC: Double-click repDemocracy
---	---	---	---

Navigation and Exiting Application: You can navigate by clicking the arrows at the bottom of each screen, or by pressing the left and right arrow buttons on your keyboard.

 NOTE: It's a good idea to wait for the orange arrow to appear on the screen before navigating forward.	 To close, click the X at the top right corner of the application.
--	--

The Representative Democracy and You presentation is easy to launch and to run. It consists of 18 screens and is setup as a mock dialogue between you and a student. Her questions (1), which are framed in a red text box, can be read by you or somebody else. Your text (2) is framed in a blue box text box. There are also Class Discussion questions (3) where you address and engage students directly.

1. Sample Student Slide	2. Sample Speaker Slide	3. Sample Class Discussion Slide

 speakingGuide.pdf	Text can be read from the screen, or with the provided document, speakingGuide.pdf .
--	---